 - Write proposals to the National Program Agencies (NPAs) that highlight area resources and why incorporating eastern iowa would make a significant contribution to the IVLP.
- Program IVLP visits under the supervision of the Program Coordinator and the Executive Director
 - Identify relevant resources for IVLP programs as instructed by NPA or Executive Director
 - Schedule professional meetings and cultural activities for international visitors
 - Draft program books and volunteer guides
 - Send thank you notes to local professionals and volunteers
- Maintain and manage local resource database
- Attend Global Ties iowa-sponsored events
- Help with other miscellaneous tasks as needed

Requirements:

- Work 10 hours per week based on an established schedule. If you are unable to fulfil your hours, you should contact the Executive Director.
- Conduct yourself in a professional manner and abide by all Global Ties iowa procedures and policies.
- Collaborate and cooperate in the development, implementation, and maintenance of all Global Ties iowa programs and initiatives as needed.
- Currently enrolled in a program of study
- Work independently and manage multiple tasks in a timely manner

Special Responsibilities:

- Serve as a Citizen Diplomat and represent Eastern Iowa and the strategic objectives of the U.S. Department of State, Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs, to the world
- Greet, guide, and host visiting international professionals from around the world and communicate that they are welcome here

Desired Skills and Abilities:

- Strong written communication skills
- Experience in program coordination
- Comfortable with cold calling and contacting local organizations and businesses
- Interest in or experience learning other languages and intercultural studies
- Interest and belief in the principles of creating an inclusive and welcoming community where diversity and belonging is valued
- Curiosity and a growth mindset

To Apply:

- Please send a current resume or CV and a letter of interest to Amy Alice Chastain, at director@globaltiesiowa.org and cc holly.harris@globaltiesiowa.org
- Letters of interest should include why you are interested in a Global Ties Iowa internship, the specific internship you are seeking, your year and major, and your availability.
- Application will remain open until position is filled.

About Global Ties Iowa:

Global Ties Iowa is a community-based, member-driven non-profit organization that creates, supports, and sustains citizen diplomacy initiatives in eastern Iowa's Creative Corridor.

Global Ties Iowa coordinates people-to-people exchanges between international visitors and residents of eastern Iowa's Creative Corridor. As a member of Global Ties U.S., Global Ties Iowa collaborates with the U.S. Department of State's International Visitor Leadership Program to host current & emerging international leaders who work in both public and private sectors. By programming meetings between visitors and their professional peers, hosting Iowa Table dinners, and sharing the rich culture of our community, Global Ties Iowa connects the world and the heartland.
